CAUSES OF BRAZIL'S TROUBLE,

The People Dissatisfied Because of High Prices and Other Unpleasant Things. NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—A letter to the Associated press dated Rio de Janeiro Associated press dated Rio de Janeiro, October 14, gives much insight into the causes of the troubles now agitating Brazil. In it it said: "The last two years the country has been flooded with irredemable paper money, now amounting nominally to about $250,000,000 and deprecated to less than 55 per cent of ts nominal value. In consequence of the depression of the currency and burdensome taxes all necessaries of life cost men clamboring over the engine tender.
